

(style central)

Take it to go

Covet the décor in your hotel room? Just stick it on the tab

Never mind the $75 bathrobe—now you can leave with linens and lamps too. Given the hotel industry's growing interest in design, a handful of places are decking out rooms with furniture and accessories for purchase. Says L.A. designer Chris Barrett, who renovated the Oceana Santa Monica (top, right), "Guests want to bring that level of luxury and fun home." —Julia Kelly

OCEANA SANTA MONICA,
Santa Monica IH5 iPod docking station and clock radio, Home, $99, and crackled Chinese double-gourd lamp with raffia shade, Oceana Santa Monica, $530; 310-393-0486.

