EXCLUSIVE

When Elisabeth Röhm woke up one morning about four months ago, she knew something had changed. "I just felt different," she says. "So I went to the doctor, and they tested me and said 'You are pregnant' — and of course I screamed because it's a miracle for anyone."

Elisabeth, 34, who's starring on ABC's Big Shots, revealed her baby news exclusively to Life & Style while relaxing at Santa Monica's Oceana hotel on Nov. 10. "I am so excited," she says. "I feel great. I've been sleeping 10 hours a day and eating truckloads of food on a daily basis. I'm eating fruit and yogurt and granola and great vegetables."
